

Northern Great Lakes Synod Youth Ministry Collaborative Grant Application

The Northern Great Lakes Synod invites you to find ways to collaborate with congregations to provide faith building programs and events for youth in our synod.

Each Conference may apply for grants totaling up to $500 per calendar year from an Equipping the Saints Endowment distribution. Proposals that meet the following criteria will be considered by the NGLS Youth Ministry Team.

Proposal Criteria

1. Projects will include at least two congregations working together to plan the event(s). All conference congregations to be invited, along with any neighboring congregations within 100 miles or acceptable driving distance.
2. Projects will be directed toward building relationships and deepening engagement of young people in youth ministry.
3. There will be a rolling deadline for proposals. Applications should be submitted at least 6 weeks prior to an event to allow time for the NGLS Youth Ministry Team to review and make decisions.
4. Proposals shall include the following:
  - a. Contact person (Name, email, phone number, congregational affiliation)
  - b. Congregations involved in planning process and role of volunteers
  - c. Description of project
  - d. Location
  - e. Proposed timeline
  - f. Proposed budget
  - g. Goals of the project
5. Commitment to provide a report of completed project. Include photos and permission to share.
