

Prayer in a Time of Pandemic

O Divine Mystery,

Your ways are not our ways.

We wonder and rage in the face of the unknown,

Even as we trust in your provident presence.

You tell us not to be afraid,

So we ask for the grace to face our fear with courage

And step into the future with hope.

We pray, as always, in the name of Jesus.

by Mary Ellen Green, OP