

Summer Bible Reading Program

This is a plan to invite people to read through the four gospels (Mark, Luke, John, and Matthew) one chapter a day during the months of June, July and August. This will help increase biblical literacy and familiarity with the gospels. Publicize this program in your May church newsletter and bulletins, so that people can begin reading on June 1st.

Reflection Questions

- What kinds of cross-generational Bible reading programs does your congregation offer to encourage people to read the Bible on a daily basis?
- How could the members of your congregation use this as an opportunity to invite others to participate in a daily Bible reading program?
- What could your congregation do to follow this up, so that people could continue to read the Bible or attend a Bible class in the fall?
